

Bunda District Commissioner Lydia Bupilipili has called upon community media practitioners to report the truth and shun away from fabricated reports.

She made the call in Bunda on May 5, 2017 while officiating a 7 days capacity building session to community media practitioners in her speech read on her behalf by a representative from the district.

UNESCO intends to mentor community radio journalists; reporters to enable them improve the quality, and diversity of radio programmes on matters of local concern with ICT.

Supported by SIDA/SDC, the session brings together 29 participants from 14 community radios in Tanzania Mainland and Zanzibar.
